ACADEMIC CORNER

Bachelor of Divinity Theses and Bachelor of Theology Research Papers for 2012

Malua Theological College has always been enriched by the high level of work that is carried out by our final year students engaged in BD Theses and BTh Research Papers. This year is no different. We have had a significant number of first degrees students – seven in total writing a BD thesis and two students doing BTh papers. The research work done by these students has not only contributed to developing further the disciplines of Biblical Studies and Theology in the college, they also highlight the critical intersection of Christian faith and Christian living both in Samoa and overseas. This year's theses and research papers can be found in the Malua Library. A list of thesis writers and a summary of their various topics are as follows:

OLD TESTAMENT DEPARTMENT

Brain Kolia (BD) -Are 'Tautua' and 'Battling' Hebel? A Cross Cultural reading of Ecclesiastes 2: 18-23 in light of the theme of 'toiling'. Kolia's paper employs cross cultural hermeneutics, his identity as a Samoan-Australian in re-reading Ecclesiastes 2: 18-23.

Panama Pouono (BTh) –“Sitting on the Fence” As a Mechanism for Survival: A Postcolonial Analysis of Daniel 1: 1-17. Pouono uses a postcolonial reading of Daniel 1:1-17 in helping to address the traumatic experience of living in diaspora.

NEW TESTAMENT DEPARTMENT

Seumaninoa Puaina (BD) -A Socio-Rhetorical Interpretation of the 'Feeding of the 5000' in Mt. 14:13-21: A Proposed Paradigm for Vai o le Ola Parish in Relations to 'fa'aaloaloga'. The relationship of 'gifting' as an aspect of the cultural concept of fa'aaloalo between the faiifeau and the church families are re-interpreted using the socio-rhetorical criticism in light of Jesus' actions in feeding of the 5000 in Matthews account.

Tanoaale'ia Tunupopo (BD) -The Destigmatization of Onesimus in Paul's Letter to Philemon. Tunupopo deals with the issue of being stigmatized and rejected by reading Paul's Letter to Philemon in providing a pathway in dealing with such negative situations. Onesimus who was rejected is de-stigmatized by Paul.

THEOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Siatafu Tinai (BD) -Baptism as an initiation process into the family of God: A theological re-interpretation of baptism from the Samoan perspective of the tatau. Tinai theologically argues that the Samoan tatau should not be banned by the church as there exists certain themes in the cultural ritual that have strong parallels with the Christian ritual of baptism.

Fotuonuupule Perelini (BTh) -Journey to the Kingdom of God: A Theological perspective on the influence of a concept of gang on the youth of the CCCS in South Auckland. In Perelini's paper he addresses the problems of Samoa youth leaving the church and going gangs. Perelini advocates the theme of the Kingdom of God as a reality that is a far better alternative for disillusioned, dysfunctional and confused Samoa youths in gangs.

CHURCH HISTORY DEPARTMENT

Petaia E. Leavai (BD) - The Schism between the Ekalesia Faapotopotoga a Iesu i Samoa (Lotu Pouesi) and the Samoa Church (London Missionary Society). Leavai's thesis attempts to address the schism between the Lotu Pouesi and the Samoan Church. The paper examines some of the critical issues that lead to the spilt as a learning curve for the Congregation Christian Church Samoa in moving forward.

PRACTICAL THEOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Filemoni Tuigamala (BD) - Soalaupule: A Tool for Christian Leadership Towards Achieving Peace and Justice in Samoa. Tuigamala's paper argues that the powers of Customary, State and Religion in Samoa that are always in tension need to be harmonised using the Samoan concept of 'soalaupule'.

Tanielu Tuaena (BD) - Is Samoa Still Founded on God? Tuaena addresses his thesis topic by exploring how Samoa became a Christian nation as well as the impact of globalisation and consumerism on church and state relationships.
