Aunoa Uelerepresented the youths of Samoa, along with three other Pacific. Upon arrival into Paris, they visited the city of Arras, then the small town of Le Quesnoy and finally the village of Longueval where the Somme ceremony took place to celebrate the lives of those brave soldiers from World War I. Aunoa said, "The experience has changed me. It was eye-opening and very emotional to walk amongst the tombs and fields where the heroicsoldiers fell in combat." They then visited the Eiffel Tower, the Notre Dame Cathedral, and the Arc de Triomphe before returning home. She was very thankful for this once in a lifetime opportunity and in closing wanted to express her heartfelt gratitude to the Malua community, the Maluapapa Study Centre and especially Tama Puleand Tina Lalokava for the prayers, well-wishes and support in making this trip a reality. Her parting words for the youth, "Dream big and shoot for the stars."
